Preferred Citation note

The Cleveland Museum of Art Archives, Photograph Collection, [box number], [folder title], [brief description of image].

Scope and Contents note

This artificial collection contains photographs received by the archives from various sources but not as a discreet collection. It has been arranged into four groups: Cleveland Museum of Art related views and portraits (named individuals and groups) and Non-CMA views and portraits.

The primary arrangement is by the space or place if it is identified, such as the Fine Arts Garden, Armor Court, or gallery number. If the primary purpose of the image is to illustrate a person or groups of people it is filed as a portrait or group image and the event or space is identified secondarily if it is available.

Negatives are listed separately in the same arrangement as prints. In some cases there are negatives for a view or portrait, but no prints. Oversized images are stored in flat files and are listed by accession number, when available.

Arrangement note

Photographs are arranged into 6 series: CMA Views, CMA Portraits, Non-CMA Views, Non-CMA Portraits, Negatives, and Oversized Photographs. Thereunder by subseries, chronologically or alphabetically.

Collection Inventory

Cleveland Museum of Art Views 2.0 Cubic feet [6 boxes]

Scope and Contents note

The Views series has been divided into two subseries. The first is exterior views. These are arranged by direction of the view, and then chronologically. This subseries also contains all Fine Arts Garden photographs. The second subseries is interiors. This includes photos of galleries and other spaces not included in the Registrar's Collection. They are arranged numerically for numbered galleries, then alphabetically for named spaces.
